

British High Commissioner urges unity and co-operation in Commonwealth Day address

On 9 March, British High Commissioner Paul Turner addressed Form Four students at King George VI School during their Commonwealth Day celebrations.