

British nationals should leave Lebanon, as UK bolsters contingency teams in region

British nationals should leave Lebanon immediately, Ministers have warned, as the Government bolsters its presence in the region.