Building knowledge in blockchain technology across government

Science advice to help explore blockchain technology's potential, building understanding and identifying the challenges of applying it to public services.