

By land and by sea: UK supports US-led military exercises improving African security and stability

The UK Armed Forces are working with allies to deliver joint exercises with African partners to protect our people, prosperity and shared values.