

Cake and eat it

The whole point about having cake is to eat it. If we do a good deal with the EU both sides can have their cake and eat it. If a deal means too little cake for one side there's no point in the deal. No Deal will let us eat more cake than a bad deal.