

Cambridge South station opens

This £250 million government investment cuts journey times, boosts rail links and supports further employment growth in the region.