

Carer who sexually abused disabled child has sentence increased

A carer who sexually abused a disabled child in his care has had his sentence more than doubled increased following an intervention by Solicitor General.