

Case study: lessons learnt after demolition companies fined over £60 million for bid-rigging

Lessons from the Competition and Markets Authority's (CMA) investigation into 10 construction firms who broke the law by rigging bids for contracts.