

Central Asia 5+United Kingdom summit advances strategic collaboration

Central Asian countries and the United Kingdom hold landmark meetings in London to advance strategic collaboration on education, security, culture, finance and economic development.