

CEPOL webinar on returning unaccompanied children and fundamental rights

The webinar's aim was to equip immigration services, border police and other return-enforcing authorities' staff with the relevant knowledge from a fundamental rights perspective.

This includes options for durable solutions and child protection safeguards. This will contribute to ensure that authorities concerned proceed in full rights compliance. Over 155 participants attended the webinar.