

Chancellor appoints infrastructure and planning adviser to clear path for new investments

Leading lawyer, Catherine Howard, appointed to advise Chancellor on the next phase of planning and infrastructure reforms as she vows to 'do what it takes to get Britain building'