

Chancellor freezes charges to keep prescriptions under a tenner

The Chancellor is extending the freeze on NHS prescription charges next year to keep prescriptions under a tenner, saving patients around £12 million next year.