

Chancellor goes further and faster to drive growth by speeding up securities trades

Financial markets will be modernised to drive capital market competitiveness and deliver growth – the priority of the government's Plan for Change.