

Changes to how HM Land Registry sends emails about applications

How HM Land Registry is increasing security and simplicity with documents becoming available via a secure link rather than as an attachment to emails.