

Charles University Prague builds partnerships with 6 UK universities

A delegation from Charles University visited the UK to build strategic partnerships with 6 UK universities. It creates collaborative research and development opportunities.