

Chevening activities strengthen women's economic leadership in Guatemala

The community of Chevening Alumni in Guatemala carried out two activities focused on women's economic participation and entrepreneurship.