

Child sex abusers sentences increased following intervention by Solicitor General

Three child sex abusers have had their sentences increased for historic offences after the Solicitor General Lucy Rigby KC MP intervened.