

Children to be better protected from second-hand smoking & vaping

The government is launching a consultation on extending smoke-free places and introducing vape-free and heated tobacco-free spaces