

China audit finds poverty relief funds idle

[unable to retrieve full-text content]A large amount of rural funds earmarked for China's impoverished regions was found sitting idle as of the end of June, according to the latest quarterly review by the National Audit Office (NAO).