

Church of England charity must rapidly accelerate safeguarding reforms

The Archbishops' Council of the Church of England must rapidly accelerate the delivery of safeguarding improvements and close gaps in its approach to handling complaints, the charity regulator has warned.