

Clean energy upgrades for hospitals and military sites

£74 million for clean energy upgrades to cut bills for public buildings and create savings for frontline services.