

CMA opens probe into childcare sector

Review will consider the challenges families face finding suitable childcare as well as pressures on providers in England.