

CMA recommends overhaul of road and rail procurement to cut costs and drive economic growth through infrastructure investment

Civil engineering market study sets out recommendations to tackle long-standing delivery issues in road and rail infrastructure.