

CMA wins legal challenge against CAT on home search warrants

The CMA has won an important legal challenge in the High Court after the CAT refused to grant it a domestic search warrant as part of a cartel investigation.