

Commissioner's statement on live facial recognition consultation

Statement on the launch of the government consultation on a new legal framework for the use of facial recognition and similar technologies in law enforcement.