

Company director fined £1,272 for abandoning Shropshire waste site

The Environment Agency has prosecuted a director of a waste company in Shropshire who abandoned a site full of waste without notifying the regulating authority.