

Company granted revised permit for waste facility

The Environment Agency has granted a revised environmental permit for a waste management facility in Essex.