

Comprehensive new funding package for councils to help address coronavirus pressures and cover lost income during the pandemic

Major new support package to help councils respond to coronavirus announced as part of comprehensive plan to ensure councils' financial sustainability for the future.