

Construction director sentenced after failing to explain almost £500,000 worth of transfers out of company account

Suspended sentence for director who did not deliver accounting records to the liquidator