

Construction work to start on new section of York flood scheme

The Environment Agency has started construction work on a major section of its York Flood Alleviation Scheme this week.