

Consultation on draft River Basin & Flood Risk Management Plans opens

Businesses, charities, local authorities and general public among those encouraged to have their say on draft plans to improve England's rivers and for managing flood risks