

COP16 concludes in Rome with a landmark agreement to mobilise resources for people and nature

The UK welcomes the positive conclusion to negotiations at the resumed meeting of CBD COP16, which saw the international community make progress towards halting and reversing nature loss by 2030