

Correctional officers intercept smuggling of suspected dangerous drugs into Lai Chi Kok Reception Centre

â€œCorrectional officers at Lai Chi Kok Reception Centre today (September 11) intercepted a male remand person in custody smuggling suspected dangerous drugs into the centre by concealing them inside his body.

The 65-year-old person in custody was remanded in the institution for the offence of trafficking in a dangerous drug on September 10. After undergoing X-ray body scanning, he was suspected to have swallowed suspected dangerous drugs before admission. He was therefore separated and put under close monitoring.

At 9.50am today, 16 packs of suspected dangerous drugs wrapped in plastic sheet were discharged from him and the case was reported to the Police for follow-up.

A spokesperson for the Correctional Services Department said, "The department takes every measure to stop the introduction of dangerous drugs or unauthorised articles into correctional institutions in order to maintain good order and discipline and a drug-free environment for all persons in custody."
