

Cost of living support helps 1.5 million pensioners and low-income households with winter bills

Almost 1.5 million households have received a £25 Cold Weather Payment since December, providing vital cost of living support to help people stay warm during cold weather.