

Costa Rica: human rights projects with a focus on the prevention of modern slavery and human trafficking

The British Embassy in San Jose is accepting project proposals focused on combating modern slavery and human trafficking whilst strengthening human rights protections in Costa Rica for the 2025 to 2026 period.