

County Durham illegal waste site shut down

The Environment Agency has closed down a waste site in County Durham after reports of illegal dumping on protected land.