

County lines taskforce set up in West Yorkshire

A specialist police team focused on tackling county lines drug running will be set up in West Yorkshire police force through £1 million of government funding.