

Courts and Tribunals Service Centres: supporting users through centralised systems and teams

Our Courts and Tribunals Service Centres (CTSCs) were established as part of the HMCTS Reform Programme, to centralise the administration of cases for multiple digital services.