

CPS to give every domestic abuse victim a dedicated liaison officer nationwide

The Attorney General, Ellie Reeves KC MP, has today announced that every survivor and victim of domestic abuse will be given a dedicated victim liaison officer, as part of a nationwide expansion of support for victims.