

Crackdown on water companies delivers record funding to restore harm done to waterways

Record £8.5 million funding secured through enforcement action will be reinvested directly into repairing harm to rivers and habitats