

Crucial reforms to give rape victims a fairer trial

Rape victims will receive better support and fairer trials under new government reforms to stamp out rape myths and restore faith in the justice system.