

Customers urged to claim debt relief order refund from the Insolvency Service before the end of the year

The Insolvency Service is encouraging anyone who paid for a debt relief order (DRO) but did not submit their application to get in touch for a refund.