

Dairy Crest given record fine for Davidstow environmental offences

The maker of popular brands like Cathedral City and others has been fined £1.5 million – the largest fine ever awarded for an Environment Agency conviction in the South West.