

Dangerous driver who killed teens has sentence extended

A dangerous driver who collided with another vehicle before killing two teenagers had her sentence extended after the Solicitor General intervened.