

Darlington pair sentenced after major diesel fire leads to evacuation of homes

A father and daughter have received a suspended custodial sentence after a fire at their removals business in Evenwood near Bishop Auckland led to serious property damage and the evacuation of several neighbouring homes.