

Defence firms incentivised to deliver on time as MOD ties profit rates to improved delivery

The Government is cracking down on waste and delays as defence companies are to be incentivised to deliver equipment on time and on budget with new reforms to Single Source Contract Regulations.