

Deputy Prime Minister announces new measures to bear down on releases in error and keep public safe

Immediate action to clamp down on mistaken releases from prisons and restore public confidence in the criminal justice system has been announced by the Deputy Prime Minister today (Tuesday 11 November).