

Deputy Prime Minister Global Partnerships Conference speech: Shifting the power – modern partnerships in practice

The Deputy Prime Minister addressed the Global Partnerships Conference on the future of international development, how it should drive shared growth and prosperity and be built on mutual respect.