

DH Social Hygiene Service arrangement

The Department of Health (DH) today (June 26) announced that Yau Ma Tei Female Social Hygiene Clinic and Chai Wan Social Hygiene Clinic under the DH's Social Hygiene Service will resume normal services starting from July 3.

The social hygiene services of the two clinics concerned were partially or fully suspended earlier due to the COVID-19 situation.

Yau Ma Tei Female Social Hygiene Clinic's service hours will be as follows:

Monday: 8.30am to 1pm (registration hours: 8.30am to noon) and 2pm to 5.30pm (registration hours: 2pm to 4.30pm)

Tuesday: 2pm to 5.30pm (registration hours: 2pm to 4.30pm) and 5.30pm to 8.30pm (registration hours: 5.30pm to 7.30pm) (evening service is limited to old cases only)

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday: 8.45am to 1pm (registration hours: 8.45am to noon) and 2pm to 5.30pm (registration hours: 2pm to 4.30pm)

Chai Wan Social Hygiene Clinic's service hours will be as follows:

Social Hygiene Service (Female)

Monday and Friday: 2pm to 5.30pm (registration hours: 2pm to 4.30pm)

Wednesday: 8.45am to 1pm (registration hours: 8.45am to noon) and 2pm to 5.30pm (registration hours: 2pm to 4.30pm)

Social Hygiene Service (Male)

Tuesday and Thursday: 8.45am to 1pm (registration hours: 8.45am to noon) and 2pm to 5.30pm (registration hours: 2pm to 4.30pm)

Please visit the following websites for the information on social hygiene clinics:

Male: www.dh.gov.hk/english/tele/tele_chc/tele_chc_shcm.html; and Female: www.dh.gov.hk/english/tele/tele_chc/tele_chc_shcf.html.