

Directors banned after investors lost more than £4 million in Derby student accommodation development

Three directors involved in the development have each now been banned for seven years